

dormakaba Access Solutions Enable Intelligent Operations of Buildings

New Product Innovations on Display at ISC West 2023 in Booth 14039

INDIANAPOLIS, March 27, 2023 – Access solutions leader dormakaba will showcase its vision for access reimagined in booth 14039 at ISC West, March 29-31, 2023, in Las Vegas. The booth will feature new product innovations and smart access technology that will help create safe and sustainable places where people can move seamlessly.

"ISC West 2023 marks the three-year milestone in the ongoing transformation of dormakaba Americas. Advancing our product offering has been a significant focus, and we're thrilled to showcase more new technology, product innovation, and strategic partnerships than at any prior show," said Alex Houston, president, dormakaba Region Americas. "We are committed to leadership across access control, access automation, and access hardware solutions and to advancing safety, security, and sustainability for every place that matters."

Five marquee products will anchor dormakaba's ISC West 2023 experience.

Access Control Solutions

dormakaba Lyazon™, a cloud-based API driven platform that integrates with a wide range of third-party systems and solutions to provide full and fluid control over every access point.

Keyscan KC Series Door Controller, a next generation controller half the size of legacy counterparts and optimized for Over-the-Air (OTA) updates and Open Supervised Device Protocol (OSDP) readers.

Access Automation Solutions

Alvarado Argus V60 Optical Turnstile, a full-performance, compact optical turnstile ideal for use where space is limited.

Alvarado SU5000 Optical Turnstile with a Biometric Reader, a swinging barrier optical turnstile featuring iris technology.

Access Hardware Solutions

BEST EHD9000 Door Closer, a rack and pinion door closer with a single piece cast iron housing that withstands high stress applications in high traffic areas.

In addition, dormakaba will showcase EntriWorX Planning 360°, a modern architectural specification and project planning platform supporting dormakaba and industry-leading solutions across American Institute of Architecture Divisions 8, 10, 11 and 28. EntriWorX represents a powerful tool to create safe, secure, and sustainable places, drawing on the strength of the full access solutions portfolio of dormakaba.
